

Members of AIAEE,

We wish to congratulate the AIAEE members that have successfully contributed to the 2004 scholarship recognized in these proceedings. We have an excellent representation with 88 papers, 30 posters and 22 carousels to be shared during our 20th anniversary annual meeting with the theme of "Education and Extension for Multi-Functional Agriculture" held in University College Dublin, Ireland.

I would like to thank and recognize my excellent team members assisting your association and in charge of our scholarship activities for AIAEE. The scholarship leadership team members and their 2004 annual meeting duties are:

Vice-chair, Margaret Kroma, assistance and coordination of co-chair activities for the annual meeting, implementing and reporting and responsible for judges for the paper, poster and carousel presentations.

Co-chair, professional papers, Don Breazeale, responsible for all professional paper review activities.

Co-chair posters and carousels, Nicole Webster, responsible for the poster and carousel reviews and sessions.

Co-chair, concurrent session's, Marta Hartmann, responsible for organizing and working with chairs, discussants and timekeepers.

Co-chair proceedings, Jim Connors, responsible for proceedings, scheduling for the professional paper presentations, abstracts of papers and conference information.

We would like to recognize and thank Dr. James Christiansen for his guidance and institutional memory which assisted to these proceedings.

Sincerely,

Pete Vergot III,
AIAEE Chair, Scholarly Activities
